

Once I got back, I got enough attaboys for several lifetimes and far than I deserved. Most important before, during, and after the flight has been our family.

Jennifer and Joe Gibson (youngest son), Julie (youngest Daughter), me, Julie, Jannet (oldest daughter) with her two daughters, and John (Oldest son)

Julie and I have four grown children and four granddaughters (only two shown).

My two sons keep me on my toes and have surpassed the old man in many ways.

Julie, my girlfriend of 51 years and life's companion, has always been my most constructive critic and ardent supporter — anything I was privileged to do would never have been possible without her support at every step along the way.
